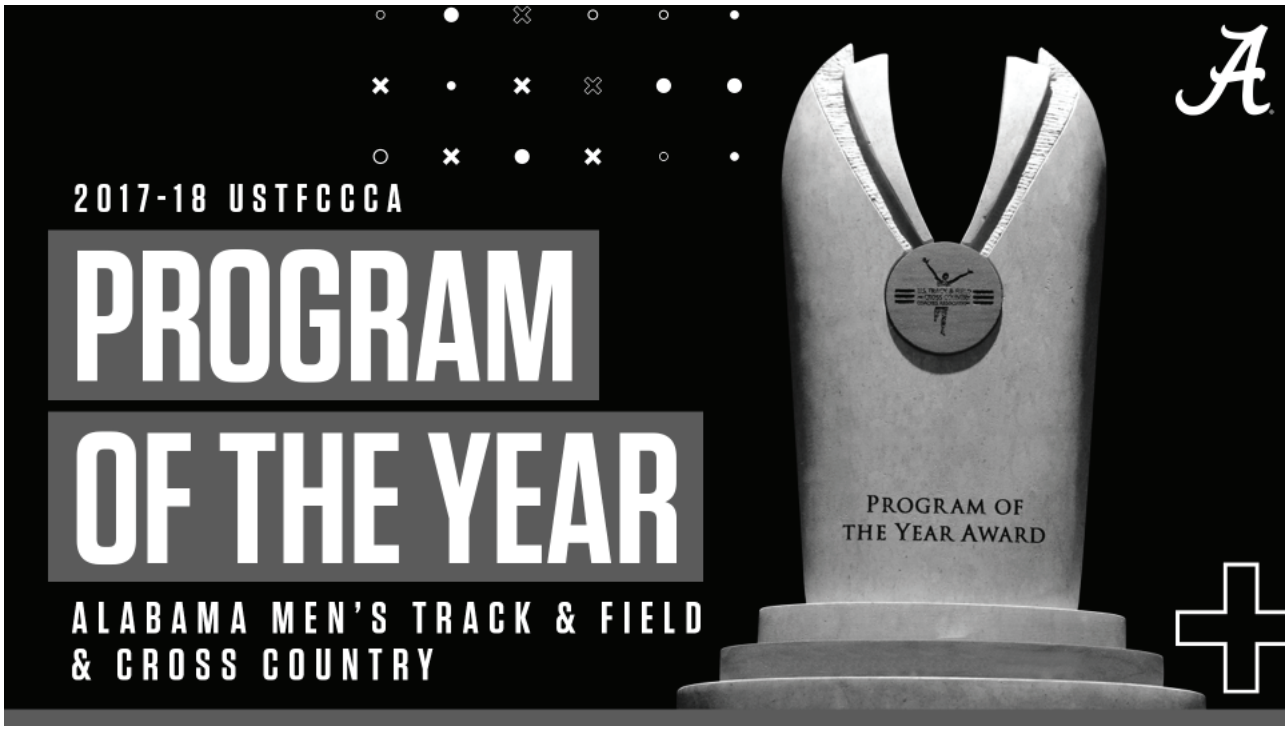
INTRODUCTION

2018 MEN'S PROGRAM OF THE YEAR

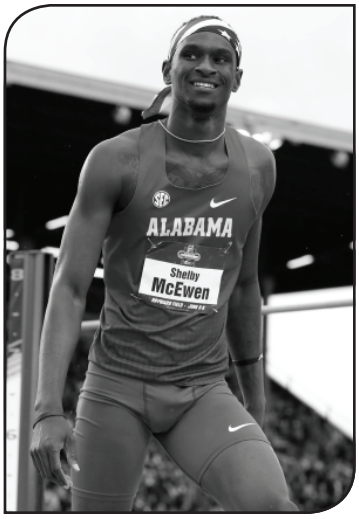


The Alabama men's track & field/cross country team was named the 2017-18 United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) John McDonnell NCAA Division I Men's Program of the Year. The honor is the first for the Alabama program.

"This is a great honor for Alabama track & field and cross country," UA head coach Dan Waters said. "It demonstrates that we've built an all-around program here. This is a highly-competitive sport so to be able to be great in all three seasons means you have great athletes, great coaches and great commitment. It's a true credit to our student-athletes for the way they competed and our assistant coaches for their dedication to the program."

"I also want to thank The University of Alabama, our director of athletics Greg Byrne and our sport oversight, Brad Ledford, for their support of our program," Waters added. "I especially want to thank our entire coaching staff – Dion Miller, Miguel Pate, Adam Tribble, Blaine Wiley, Derek Yush, Mike Bartolina, Connor Mahoney-Ashberry and David Virgets. This award is about them and every young man on our roster."

The Program of the Year award has been presented annually since 2009 to the track & field and cross country program with the best combined finish at the NCAA cross country, indoor and outdoor national championships. The Crimson Tide finished 14th at the NCAA Cross Country Championships, ninth at the indoor championships and tied for fifth at the outdoor championships for 28.5 total points to edge out Arkansas, which finished second with 31 points.



2018 SEC MEN'S INDOOR CHAMPIONS

Alabama captured its sixth SEC men's indoor track & field championship in 2018 with a 63-point performance on the meet's final day.

The Alabama Crimson Tide men stormed to their first conference title since 1972 on the final day of the 2018 Southeastern Conference Indoor Track & Field Championships at Texas A&M's Gilliam Indoor Track & Field Stadium in College Station, Texas. In second place after the meet's opening day, the Tide roared to the front of the pack behind a 21-point performance in the 5,000 meters and four additional top-three finishes on Day 2 to clinch the crown.

"This was a total team championship," head coach Dan Waters said following the meet. "Everyone contributed. One of the most impressive things about this championship was where the points came from. Our freshman triple jumper, Christian Edwards, finishing second. Kord Ferguson finishing second in the shot put with an amazing mark. Shelby McEwen winning the high jump for our only individual title. Our distance runners scoring 31 points in the 3,000 and 5,000. It was a total team effort and that's how we built this program. Everyone chipped in one way or another."

Alabama won the title with 91 points, three points ahead of runner-up Arkansas (88). Florida (83.5), Texas A&M (75.5) and Georgia (71) round out the top five.

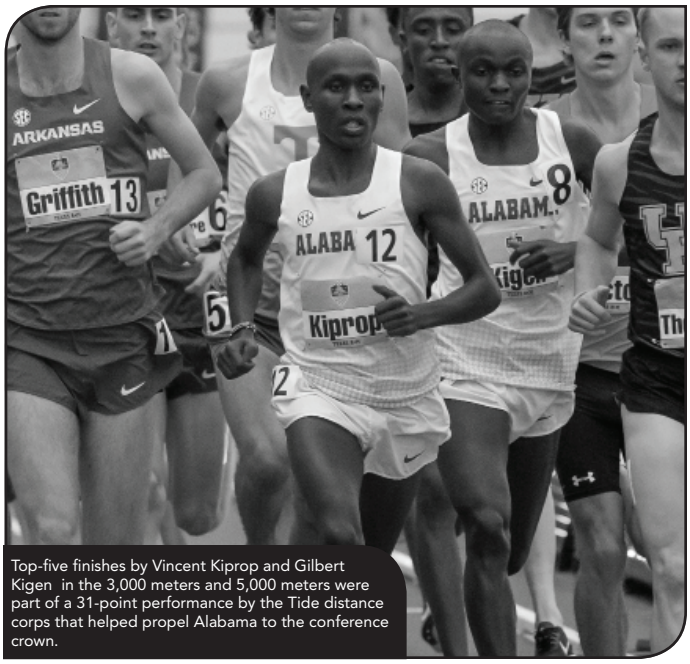
The conference crown is the sixth indoor championship in school history. The men previously won the SEC in 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1972.

Alabama entered the second and final day of competition trailing Day 1 leader Florida, 30.5-28, following junior Shelby McEwen's win in the high jump, a second place finish by senior Daniel Haugh in the weight throw and third- and fifth-place finishes by Vincent Kiprop and Gilbert Kigen, respectively, in the 3,000 meters. The Gators extended the lead with multiple scorers in Sunday's first five events but senior Ruebin Walters and junior Keitavious Walter kept the Tide within striking distance with second- and seventh-place finishes in the 60-meter hurdles and 60 meters, respectively.

However, it was the longest race of the day that catapulted the Crimson Tide into championship contention as juniors Kigen, Kiprop and seniors Alfred Chelanga and Conner Thompson finished 2-3-5-6 in the men's 5,000 meters for 21 points to push Alabama into a lead it would not relinquish.

The Tide continued to pile up the points as senior Will Herrscher and freshman Jake Spotswood finished 3-4 in the pole vault. Freshman Christian Edwards and junior Kord Ferguson added second-place finishes in the triple jump and shot put, respectively, and Walter finished sixth in the 200 meters. Alabama clinched the championship with an eighth-place finish in the 4x400-meter relay, the final event of the evening.

"I'm just so proud of everyone," Waters added. "From our student-athletes to our assistant coaches and support staff and our administration. It's been a seven-year process to get here so it's extremely rewarding to win this championship. We've built a complete program and it took every part of it – sprinters, hurdlers, distance, jumpers, vaulters, throwers – coming through to win this title. To do something like this takes a lot of hard work and dedication. If you buy in to that, you'll see the fruits of your labor. That's what we saw tonight."



Top-five finishes by Vincent Kiprop and Gilbert Kigen in the 3,000 meters and 5,000 meters were part of a 31-point performance by the Tide distance corps that helped propel Alabama to the conference crown.

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama in July 2015, bringing with him 30 years of experience in higher education. He had previously served at the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and department head of mechanical engineering. During this time, he also founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center, the Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, which continues to thrive today.

Prior to returning to UA as president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. Before his time at LSU, he served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering. Under his leadership, both institutions opened new facilities and saw great success in student recruitment and retention.

An Abilene, Texas, native, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's degree and doctorate in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively. It was also at Texas A&M that he met and fell in love with his wife, Susan. They have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen. They are also the proud grandparents to two granddaughters, Livi and Sadie.

Since his return to the Capstone, Dr. Bell has led the University by developing a strategic plan that maps out the aspirations of the campus. By renewing UA's commitment to its students and the campus community, and with a focus on significantly increasing investments in faculty and research, Dr. Bell's plan has already improved the quality of life for citizens across our state, nation and world. Through the strategic plan's initiatives, multiple research institutes have been formed on campus, creating an interdisciplinary approach to address national and worldwide challenges in the areas of water, transportation and lifespan research.

Under Dr. Bell's leadership, The University of Alabama sustains an enrollment of the best and brightest students in the nation. As Alabama's premier flagship university, the Capstone continues to celebrate the impressive achievements of its faculty, staff, students and student-athletes. With more than 600 National Merit Scholars enrolled, UA is a leader among public universities nationwide. The University of Alabama is undeniably the place Where Legends are Made.

- UA is building a new Performing Arts Academic Center on the historic Bryce property. The $60 million center will provide the theatre and dance department with space for performances and to expand its community programming and outreach.

- UA's Stran-Hardin Arena, a $10 million vanguard facility for adapted sports, was unveiled in January 2018.

GREG BYRNE
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Greg Byrne, one of the most acclaimed and respected administrators in collegiate athletics, began his tenure as Alabama's Director of Athletics on March 1, 2017. His role at Alabama is his third venture at the helm of a major collegiate athletics program.

Since taking over, Byrne developed and implemented The Crimson Standard, a five-year strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics as well as benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity. In addition, The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of an infrastructure that will drive future success was created.

Alabama Athletics celebrated its highest finish in program history in the Learfield Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2017-18 season, placing 14th thanks to a national championship in football, runner-up finishes in men's and women's golf and NCAA postseason appearances by men's basketball, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's indoor track & field and men's and women's outdoor track & field. The Tide also continued its run of excellence in the classroom, leading the nation in Academic All-Americans with 11.

Prior to coming to Alabama, Byrne was Vice President for Athletics at the University of Arizona from 2010-17 and was Director of Athletics at Mississippi State University from 2008-10. With more than 20 years of experience as an athletics administrator, Byrne has fashioned an impressive administrative career hallmarked by consistent success in fundraising, innovative strategies and competitive success with a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been consistently more impactful and successful with each step up the administrative ladder. As a fundraiser, he has been directly involved in raising more than $200 million in gifts during his career. As a leader of competitive athletics programs, he has fostered major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both programs he has led. A proponent of developing student-athletes into productive people after college, Byrne has led programs that have attained academic success at levels not reached prior to his tenure.

He also has deep experience working in the Southeastern Conference (SEC), having spent 2002 to 2005 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising before a four-year stint at Mississippi State (2006-10). From 2006-08, Byrne served as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU before becoming Director of Athletics.

Under Byrne's leadership, Arizona Athletics underwent more than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities. That work was highlighted by the $72 million Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the addition of two video boards in Arizona Stadium (football), and a new scoreboard in the McKale Center (basketball). Additionally, Byrne oversaw a $30 million renovation of the McKale Center, a project that included upgraded locker rooms, seating, restrooms, concessions, enhanced lighting and a new playing floor.

At Mississippi State, where he was the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level, Byrne oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen.

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including the United States Olympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council, the Division I Football Oversight Committee and the Southeastern Conference Security Committee. He is currently also serving his one-year term as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

As the son of veteran athletics administrator Bill Byrne, one of the nation's most prominent college sports administrators with 30 years of experience as an Athletics Director, Greg Byrne has been around the enterprise of running successful athletic programs for most of his life.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

SAM BAILEY TRACK AND FIELD COMPLEX

When it came time to renovate the University of Alabama's Sam Bailey Track and Field Complex, which first opened in 1975, Crimson Tide head coach Dan Waters had one directive for everyone involved in the project and that was to create a world-class facility that would be comparable to the nation's best. Mission accomplished.

The Tide's home facility was rebuilt in 2012 from the ground up, utilizing every inch of the facility to give Alabama track and field athletes everything they need to be successful at the highest level.

"It's a beautiful facility that is also highly functional," Waters said. "We took every inch of that space that we could and used it to the very best of our ability. I think the facility and everything that has gone into it makes a very definite statement that at The University of Alabama, we take our track and field very seriously."

The design and layout ensures that the Sam Bailey Track & Field complex is one of the premier facilities in the nation.

"From the beginning, coach Dan Waters' vision for the improvements was to give Alabama a facility that allowed them to compete and train at the highest level, both within the SEC and nationally," Jim Hartsell from Davis Architects said. "I don't think there is any doubt that's what we've accomplished."

The nine-lane track has a state of the art Beynon BSS -2000 track surface, which allows for a faster and more durable surface for both competition and training.

"When you're talking about hundredths or thousandths of a second, the fact that we can train on this kind of surface means so much to our athletes," Waters said. "It's fast, but not so hard that you're going to risk injuries. We also widened the track, which lessens the centrifugal forces and makes it much faster."

The redesigned track gives Tide athletes a training and competition facility that is nearly identical to what they will see when they get to the championship season.

"This facility allows us to train every day in a championship calibre facility," Waters said. "Whereever we go during the championship season, our athletes have the confidence of knowing that their bodies are fine tuned to compete on just that kind of track, with the same surface and radius."

The shot put throw area was relocated and redesigned at the west end of the track, outside of the oval, combining the landing pits to provide a more functional and efficient throws area.

The infield was replaced with a new Tifway 419 hybrid Bermuda grass infield and provides the landing areas for the javelin, hammer throw and discus.

The cages for the throw events have been strategically placed within both "D zone areas" to allow for better meet management.

Timing locations have been added throughout the track area to allow for the use of the most current event timing techniques.

The redesign also relocated and reconfigured the jumps area to make both training and competition more efficient. There are now two long jump runways, two pole vault runways, and two high jump aprons.

During the renovations, permanent lights were installed, giving the Crimson Tide far more flexibility when it comes to training and competition.

"With the way everything is configured now and with addition of the lights, we can run an efficient and fan-friendly meet," Waters said. "We can run a meet in four hours now instead of it being an all-day grind like it could be in the past."

In addition to the track renovations, the grandstand was upgraded with new seating and a complete renovation and expansion of the press box. The concession areas, restrooms and storage facilities were renovated and updated to better serve the needs of both the team and its fans.

A new entry plaza was also incorporated into the facility with displays to commemorate the history of Alabama track athletes, both in collegiate and Olympic competition. There is also a permanent awards area, created out of the same material as the track itself.

DAN WATERS

Head Coach

NINTH SEASON

In his ninth season at the helm of The University of Alabama men's and women's cross country and track & field programs in 2019-2020, head coach Dan Waters has made an extraordinary impact on the Crimson Tide. Waters has unified and transformed the program and made it one of the nation's best track & field and cross country programs during his tenure.

Since taking over the program in June of 2011, Waters has completely remade the Alabama program. A multi-million-dollar facelift of the Sam Bailey Track & Field Complex dramatically changed the functionality and capabilities of the facility. Those improvements are an outward reflection of the overhaul that has occurred within the team. In seven years with Waters as head coach, Alabama has developed into a complete program featuring top student-athletes in all disciplines.

Alabama opened the 2018-19 competition season with its third NCAA South Region individual champion in the last four seasons as Alfred Chelanga won the meet and advanced to the NCAA Championships. Chelanga and fellow senior Connor Ferrentino also picked up the Tide's eighth and ninth all-region honors of the Waters era at the meet. Chelanga went on to earn All-America honors for the second year in a row at the NCAA Cross Country Championships.

The 2018 track & field season saw the Crimson Tide men capture the program's first USTFCCCA Program of the Year Award, presented annually to the cross country and track & field program with the best combined finishes at the NCAA cross country, indoor and outdoor championships. Alabama earned the honor on the strength of a fifth-place finish at the NCAA outdoor meet, a ninth-place finish at the indoor championships and a 14th-place finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championships.

The top-5 finish at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships was the first for the Tide since 1986 and gave UA its first back-to-back top-10 outdoor placings since finishing seventh and sixth in 2000 and 2001. The eighth place finish indoors also gave the Tide back-to-back indoor top-10 finishes for the first time since finishing fourth and second in 2001 and 2002.

In addition to its national success in 2018, Alabama captured its first Southeastern Conference indoor championship since 1972 to earn Waters his first SEC Coach of the Year award. Outdoors, the men finished fourth at the SEC meet, giving the Tide three straight top-four finishes in conference for the first time since 1989-91.

The 2017 cross country season was the best of Waters' tenure and continues the growth curve the program has been on over the last several years. In addition to their 14th-place team finish in their first trip to the national meet since 2010, juniors Gilbert Kigen (fourth), Vincent Kiprop (seventh) and Alfred Chelanga (37th) earned All-America honors. The men finished second at the SEC Championships and third at the NCAA South Regional as Kiprop (SEC) and Kigen (Regional) captured individual titles at the two races and earned SEC Runner of the Year and South Region Athlete of the Year honors, respectively.

The Tide women were led by sophomore McKenzie Yanek, who followed up her SEC All-Freshman debut in 2016 with First-Team All-SEC honors in 2017.

In his first seven seasons at the Capstone, Waters' track & field teams have earned 107 All-American certificates (64 men's/43 women's) and seen five individuals win at total of eight individual national titles during that span.

The Tide men have recorded three top-10 NCAA Indoor Championships finishes in the last five years (2014, 2017, 2018) and back-to-back men's top-10 finishes at the NCAA Outdoor Championships over the last two seasons. The Crimson Tide women posted their first top-three finish in 23 years at the 2017 NCAA indoor meet

In SEC competition, the Tide men have recorded three top-four finishes at the conference indoor meet (2014, 2017, 2018) - including the 2018 SEC indoor title - and three consecutive top-four finishes at the SEC outdoor meet over the last three seasons. In 2017, the Tide men and women both finished in the top-10 at the NCAA indoor championships for the first time in school history.

The success of the 2017 cross country team capped a three-year run that saw the men's team move from ninth to second at the SEC Cross Country Championships and sixth to third at the NCAA South Regional to earn UA its first team trip to the NCAA Championships since 2010. From 2013-16, the Tide women also posted four consecutive top-four finishes at the South Regional.

Alabama has also experienced considerable individual success in cross country under Waters. The Tide men have won two of the last three SEC and NCAA South Regional individual titles with Antibahs Kosgei taking both the SEC and regional crowns in 2015 and Vincent Kiprop leading a Tide sweep of the top three spots at the 2017 SEC meet and Gilbert Kigen winning the South Regional that same season. Kosgei (2015, 2016), Kiprop (2017), Kigen (2017), Robbie Farnham-Rose (2014, 2016) and Alfred Chelanga (2017) have all earned men's All-South Region honors under Waters while Katelyn Greenleaf (2013, 2014, 2015), Meropi Panagioutou (2013) and Hannah Waggoner (2014, 2016) have earned the honor for the women.

Alabama's All-SEC honorees have included Carison Kemei (2011), Kosgei (2015, 2016), Kiprop (2017), Kigen (2017) and Chelanga (2017) on the men's side and Greenleaf (2013, 2014, 2015) and Rachael Reddy (2015) for the women.

The foundation for 2017's success was laid in 2016 as Alabama recorded its best finishes to that point under Waters at the SEC Outdoor Track & Field Championships as the women finished sixth and the men finished third at the meet, which was held at the Sam Bailey Track Stadium. The finishes were the best since 1989 for the men and since 2006 for the women.

One of the finest honors in the Waters era was earned when the men's track & field squad was named the 2014 Indoor Scholar Team of the Year by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA).

As the highest-placing team with at least a 3.00 cumulative team grade point average at the 2014 NCAA Division I Indoor Championships, Alabama stood out among 116 men's programs that combined academic and athletic achievement to earn All-Academic Team honors.

The Crimson Tide was the highest-finishing men's team at the NCAA Indoor Championships to earn All-Academic Team honors that year, finishing sixth overall with a 3.14 cumulative team GPA. It marked the first time the Crimson Tide men have earned Scholar Team of the Year honors. The Tide men also finished 15th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships that season.

The Tide women produced a breakout year on the track and in the classroom in 2015, posting a 3.48 cumulative team grade point average to earn All-Academic Team status from the USTFCCCA. They were also the only team in the country to finish the year with a grade point average better than a 3.40 while also finishing in the top 20 at both the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

Alabama's cross country teams have been a mainstay on the USTFCCCA All-Academic Team list under Waters, with both programs earning recognition every year since 2013. The women's track & field team has been honored seven times during Waters' tenure (2012-18) while the men have made the list in 2014 and 2018.

Alabama has also more than doubled its list of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans during Waters' tenure with nine student-athletes earning recognition a total of 10 times.

Already nationally recognized as a recruiter during his years as an assistant coach, Waters has continued that success at UA, recording four top-10 classes in the last five recruiting cycles.

Waters was named the head track & field and cross country coach at Alabama on May 11, 2011, after seven extremely successful seasons as an assistant at Texas A&M. He immediately embarked on hiring an all-star staff of assistant coaches who helped reshape Crimson Tide cross country and track & field during their first season at the Capstone. This core staff of assistants successfully merged the men's and women's teams into a unified program that helped forge a new team environment and identity for the Crimson Tide.

Changing the culture brought renewed energy and excitement to the program and results followed on the track in 2012 with three Alabama competitors earning All-America honors during the indoor season, including Krystle Schade finishing as the runner-up in the women's high jump. In the outdoor season, the Tide sent five student-athletes to the NCAA Championships with four coming home as All-Americans and Alexis Paine setting a school record in the pole vault (13-5 1/4).

In 2013, the track & field season saw marked improvement for the Tide as the men's team finished 11th in the team standings at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, the program's highest team finish in 11 years.

Alabama produced nine All-Americans in the 2013 outdoor season, after qualifying 18 athletes for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Sprinter Diondre Batson led the way by finishing fourth in the men's 100-meter dash and running a leg on the Tide's second-place 4x100-meter relay unit that shattered the school record.

While serving as recruiting coordinator and distance coach at Texas A&M, Waters was a key contributor to a coaching staff that led the Aggies to unprecedented success on the national scene. The Aggies won six NCAA national championships, including three-straight men's and women's outdoor titles, the first program to accomplish that feat.

The Aggie women won eight consecutive Big 12 titles (four indoor, four outdoor) in a four-year span. One of the nation's top distance coaches, Waters also served as the recruiting coordinator at A&M and assisted the process of upgrading the program's talent level to be consistently competitive on the national level. His recruiting and coaching efforts were vital to the men and women each winning three-consecutive NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2009, 2010 and 2011 – becoming the second school to achieve the NCAA Championship double-double (LSU 1989-90) and the first to have both programs win three in a row.

Recruiting classes coordinated by Waters at Texas A&M earned No. 1 rankings by Track & Field News. The 2009 men's and women's recruiting classes were chosen the top recruiting classes in the nation by the monthly magazine, with A&M becoming the second school to earn that acclaim in the 15-year history of Track & Field News ranking collegiate classes. The Aggie women also enjoyed a three-year run as the No. 1 class, from 2007-09, becoming the first women's program to achieve that distinction.

Known for his strong administrative and organizational skills, Waters directed event management at several championship events at A&M, including the 2009 and 2011 NCAA Indoor Championships, 2009 Big 12 Indoor Championships, and 2003 SEC Cross Country Championships.

In cross country, Waters earned the South Central Region Men's Coach of the Year honor in 2008 when A&M won the team title during the regional meet and qualified for the NCAAs. It was the first time in 18 years that a team defeated powerhouse Arkansas for the region title. The regional team title the Aggie men claimed in 2008 was the school's first since 2003 and only the sixth overall. It also marked the first time that a distance coach on Henry's staff had qualified a cross country team for the NCAAs.

Waters came to A&M in August 2004, after serving a three-year stint overseeing the distance program at the University of Georgia and an earlier five years at TCU in a similar capacity.

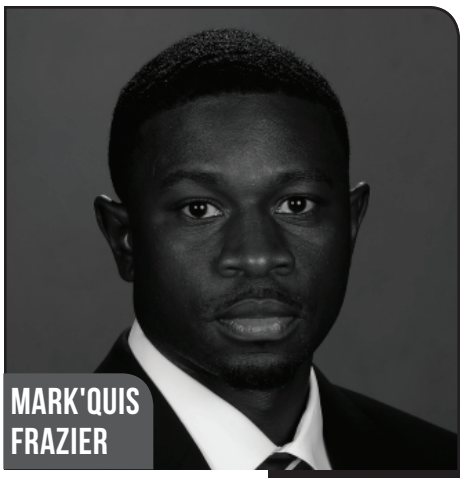
During his stay in Athens, Ga., Waters led the Bulldogs men's team to the program's first appearance in the NCAA Cross Country Championship, as well as a team victory at the NCAA South Regional Championships. At the conference level, the Georgia men placed second (highest in school history), while the women's team matched its highest finish with an SEC runner-up effort. On the track, his distance runners broke seven school records.

At TCU, Waters helped the Horned Frogs win four Western Athletic Conference team championships - two in indoor track & field, one in outdoor track & field and one in cross country. The 2000 WAC cross country and indoor track crowns were the first team conference titles in TCU history. During his stay in Fort Worth, the Horned Frogs notched four top-four NCAA team finishes and TCU was ranked No. 1 nationally by Trackwire.com in 2001. Athletes at TCU during Waters' tenure included Khadevis Robinson, who won the 1998 NCAA 800-meter crown. Robinson is a two-time U.S. Champion who competed in the 800 at the 2004 and 2012 Olympic Games.

Waters began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Texas from 1995-96.

He earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education from the University of Kansas in 1995. A standout for the Jayhawks, he was the 1992 Big Eight champion in the 800 meters and ran a leg on KU's 1992 All-America indoor 3,200-meter relay. He was elected the Jayhawks' team captain in 1993 and 1995, and was named a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1995.

Waters is married to the former Jennifer Miller. They have three children, Alexis, Charlie and Joseph.



MARK'QUIS FRAZIER

Assistant Coach — Sprints

FIRST SEASON

Mark'Quis Frazier joined the Crimson Tide's track and field coaching staff in the summer of 2019. Frazier, a three-time USTFCCA and NJCAA National and Regional Assistant Coach of the Year, will work with Alabama's sprint group.

Frazier joins the Tide after two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Barton Community College, helping lead the Cougars to two NJCAA team titles and four runner-up finishes. During his coaching stint at Barton, the Cougars produced 19 national champions. Prior to Barton, Frazier coached at Iowa Central Community College during the 2017 season, helping lead them to an NJCAA team title.

Frazier attended the University of Houston and was an NCAA Championships qualifier in the 100 meters and the 4x400-meter relay and ran on the Cougars' 2012 Conference USA Outdoor Championship squad. He finished his collegiate career at Baylor, earning All-America honors as a member of its 4x100-meter relay squad. He graduated from Baylor with a bachelor's in education in 2014.

Frazier began his career at Barton as part of the program's 50th National Championship during his freshman season. He went on to win the 2011 NJCAA Outdoor 200 meters title with a time of 20.38, the third-fastest collegiate time in the nation at any level that season.

Following his collegiate career, Frazier spent three years in the professional ranks, competing as a member of the 2014 Nigerian world relay team and at the 2015 Commonwealth Games.

A native of Dallas, Texas, Frazier ran for Lancaster High School where he was the 2008 and 2009 district, regional, and state champion, set the 100-meters school record and was a member of the 2009 4x100-meter relay USA Junior Olympic championship squad.

Frazier joins a Crimson Tide program that saw both the men and women finish in the top-10 at the 2019 NCAA indoor and outdoor championships, making them one of only two programs in the nation to do so.

WILL PALMER

Assistant Coach — Distance

SECOND SEASON

Alabama head coach Dan Waters welcomed Will Palmer to the Crimson Tide coaching staff on Aug. 23, 2018. Palmer, who will work with the Crimson Tide distance crew, arrives at the Capstone from Georgetown University.

Palmer brings seven years of coaching and administrative experience to Tuscaloosa, with coaching stops at Georgetown (2016-18), Western Kentucky (2015-16) and Iowa State (2013-15) and two years as the operations director for the track & field and cross country teams at Oklahoma (2011-13).

In two years with the Hoyas, Palmer's women's middle distance and distance runners garnered 43 All-BIG EAST nods across cross country (11), indoor (18) and outdoor track & field (14).

With Palmer, Georgetown boasted 27 competitors at the 2017 and 2018 NCAA east prelims across the middle distance and distance events. The Hoyas' Jonathan Green also earned Mid-Atlantic Region Men's Athlete of the Year in 2017.

At the national level, the Hoya's men's and women's distance and middle distance runners earned All-America honors in the women's mile, men's mile, men's 1,500 meters, 10,000 meters and the distance medley relay and men's cross country between 2017 and 2018. Palmer was also part of the 2016-17 Hoya staff that led the track & field and cross country teams to a No. 6 ranking in the USTFCCCA Men's Program of the Year standings.

Palmer arrived Georgetown after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Western Kentucky. He was responsible for the women's cross country resurgence as the team turned in its best overall season in five years in 2015-16. On the track, his middle distance and distance athletes contributed to a pair of C-USA team championships (2016 men's indoor and outdoor) and a pair of C-USA podium finishes (second – 2016 women's indoor; third – 2016 women's outdoor). He also coached Endalow Takele to the men's 10,000-meter title at the C-USA outdoor championships.

While working with the Hilltoppers, Palmer performed a number of duties, including: event coach for women's cross country, event coach for men's and women's middle distance and distance, domestic and international recruiting for middle distance and distance as well as team travel. He also oversaw the academic performance of the distance and field event athletes and performed administrative tasks as WKU hosted the 2015 C-USA Cross Country Championships.

Prior to his time at Western Kentucky, Palmer spent two years as an assistant at Iowa State University from 2013-15. During those two seasons, the Cyclones captured a pair of Big 12 women's cross country team championships and turned in a runner-up performance at the 2014 NCAA Women's Cross Country Championships.

In addition to his coaching and recruiting duties with the Cyclones, Palmer was tasked with reenergizing the Iowa State Classic, now a premier indoor track meet on the NCAA circuit with high performance middle distance and distance races geared toward achieving NCAA-qualifying performances. In two years, 45 athletes who competed in Ames went on to race at the NCAA indoor track & field championships. In the process, 10 new meet and six new facility records were established. Palmer also helped host a trio of Big 12 Championships (2014 indoor, 2015 indoor, 2015 outdoor) and the 2013 NCAA Midwest Region Cross Country Championships.

Palmer got his start in collegiate track & field as the director of track & field and cross country operations for the University of Oklahoma for two seasons (2011-13). During his time with the Sooners, he worked for Martin Smith, who would go on to give Palmer his first collegiate coaching job at Iowa State.

The Bethesda, Md., native made the most of his undergraduate experience while at Williams College, interning with both the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association and Team Indiana Elite, a professional distance running training group based in Bloomington. He was a four-year letterwinner on the men's cross country and track & field at Williams and received his Bachelor of Arts in mathematics from the school in 2011. Palmer is married to the former Samantha Bluske.

MIGUEL PATE

Assistant Coach — Jumps

NINTH SEASON

Former University of Alabama All-American and long jump national champion Miguel Pate is in his ninth season as an assistant coach at the Capstone in 2020. Pate serves as the Crimson Tide's jumps coach.

During his eighth season with the Crimson Tide in 2019, Pate saw three of his athletes achieve a total of five All-America honors. For the men, Shelby McEwen won indoor and outdoor honors in high jump, while women Abigail Kwarteng and Stacey Destin were awarded honors following the outdoor season in high jump. Destin was also awarded All-America honors for her Pentathlon performance during the indoor season. McEwen finished first in the NCAA Indoor Championships with a mark of 7-6 (2.29m) and third in the NCAA Outdoor Championships with a mark of 7-4.25 (2.24m).

The 2018 season saw Pate pupil Shelby McEwen win the SEC indoor and outdoor high jump titles and finish third and second respectively, in the event at the NCAA indoor and outdoor championships in his first season with the Crimson Tide. McEwen's 7-6 clearance at the NCAA indoor meet made him just the second man to surpass that height in Alabama history and the first to do it in a collegiate meet.

McEwen would cap his season with a fifth-place finish at the USA Track & Field National Championships.

Christian Edwards earned SEC All-Freshman honors with a second-place finish at the conference indoor championships as the Tide jumpers accounted for 18 team points to help the Crimson Tide capture its first league title since 1972.

Edwards followed up his indoor performance with a sixth-place finish in the triple jump at the SEC Outdoor Championships to earn All-Freshman honors for a second time. He would go on to qualify for the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships before winning the triple jump at the USA Track & Field Junior Championships to earn a spot on the U.S. U20 national team that competed in the 2018 IAAF U20 Championships in Tampere, Finland.

On the women's side, junior Stacey Destin once again earned All-America honors in the indoor high jump as well as the pentathlon and turned in third- and fourth-place finishes in the events at the SEC Indoor Championships. Junior Tamara Moncrieffe became just the third woman in school history to surpass 43 feet in the women's triple jump and finished sixth in the event at the SEC indoor meet while Jaimie Robinson earned SEC All-Freshman honors in the triple jump. Senior Filippa Fotopoulou also turned in seventh place finish in the long jump as Pate's jumpers accounted for 16 points at the conference indoor meet.

In 2017, senior Quanesha Burks won her third SEC outdoor long jump title, becoming just the fourth woman in Alabama history to win three or more conference crowns in one event in program history. She also earned Destin earned All-America honors in the high jump at the NCAA indoor and outdoor championships while Fotopoulou reached the finals of the long jump at the SEC Indoor Championships and qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the second time in her career.

Pate's pupils were also a driving force behind the Alabama women posting a third-place finish at the 2017 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships as Burks, Destin and Fotopoulou accounted for 18 of UA's 37 points at the meet.

As a junior in 2016, Burks captured the SEC and NCAA indoor long jump titles and repeated at the SEC outdoor champion in the event and was the runner-up at the NCAA outdoor meet.

Pate was instrumental in developing Burks in the long jump, leading to her winning efforts at the 2015 NCAA Outdoor Championships in Eugene, Ore. and the 2016 NCAA Indoor Championships in Birmingham as well as being one of 10 semifinalists for the Bowerman Trophy as a sophomore. Burks' outdoor title capped an unbeaten outdoor season in 2015, as she also claimed the long jump title at the SEC Championships. Burks also set a new school record several times during the outdoor season, the last coming at the 2015 North American, Central American and Caribbean (NACAC) Senior Championships in San Jose, Costa Rica, where she jumped 22-9 (6.93m) to claim gold.

In 2014, Pate coached Burks to second-team All-America honors in the long jump, as well a second-place finish in the women's long jump at the U.S. Junior National Championships.

Burks ended her career holding the 10 best indoor and outdoor long jump marks in Alabama history. On the track, she was a member of Alabama's record-setting 4x100-meter relay in 2017 and ended her career with three of UA's 10 fastest 100-meter times in school annals. The Hartselle, Ala., native was a three-time outdoor All-American in the 4x100 relay and a 2017 All-American in the 100 meters. Indoors, she twice earned All-America honors in the 60 meters in 2017.

In 2016, men's triple jumper Jeremiah Green broke Pate's 14-year-old school record in the indoor triple jump and went on to earn All-America honors in the event at the NCAA Indoor Championships. In all, Green was a four-time All-American under Pate in the event as well as the 2014 SEC indoor champion and 2014 SEC Freshman Field Athlete of the Year. Green was also a member of the Tide's All-SEC 4x100-meter relay at the 2016 conference outdoor championships in Tuscaloosa.

The 2016 season also saw high jumper Justin Fondren establish himself as one of the top Tide athletes in the specialty, earning All-America and All-SEC honors for the third time in his career.

Pate helped Alabama sprinters make an impact on the SEC and national levels in 2013. Led by SEC outdoor 100-meter champion Diondre

Batson, the Alabama sprint corps announced the Tide's return to national prominence by keying a run to an 11th-place team finish at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. At that meet, Alabama's 4x100-meter relay crew of Batson, Alex Sanders, Hakeem Haynes and Dushane Farrier posted the two fastest relay performances in Alabama history. In the semi-finals, the quartet broke a 23-year-old record with a time of 38.78. Three days later, the foursome came within a fraction of winning the NCAA title, finishing second with another school-record time of 38.54.

Both the men's and women's squads built on their success from 2013 as they moved into the 2014 season. Batson captured the 200-meter title at the NCAA indoor meet in a time of 20:32, while simultaneously breaking the Alabama school record. Batson returned to the track the next day to take third in the 60-meter race.

Remona Burchell set the standard for the women's squad, winning the 60-meter title at the NCAA indoor meet, as well as the 100-meter title at the NCAA outdoor championship. Burchell's 60-meter title was the first indoor title for an Alabama woman in any event since 1989. The junior also broke a 28-year-old Alabama school record in the 100 meters in route to qualify for the national championships at the NCAA East Preliminary meet.

In his first season on staff, Pate coached Kaylon Eppinger to all-conference recognition in the pentathlon at the 2016 SEC indoor meet.

Pate returned to Tuscaloosa after a season as an assistant at Samford, following a successful professional career.

As a student-athlete at Alabama from 1999-2002, Pate captured the NCAA indoor long jump title in 2002 and finished second in the triple jump. That same indoor season, he set the collegiate indoor long jump record with a mark of 28-2 1/4 at the USA Indoor Championships before winning a bronze medal at the World Championships. Pate was a seven-time All-American at Alabama and was ranked in the top five in the United States and the top 10 in the world in the long jump for eight consecutive years. He still owns the Alabama records in both the long jump and triple jump indoors and remains the Tide record holder in the outdoor long jump.

Pate finished third at the 2008 U.S. Olympic Trials to earn his first spot on the Olympic team at the Beijing Games. The West Feliciana, La., native ended the 2008 season ranked number one in the U.S. by Track & Field News and followed that with a fourth-place finish at the USA Outdoor Championships before retiring from competition to begin his coaching career.

BLAINE WILEY

Assistant Coach — Sprints

FIFTH SEASON

Blaine Wiley, an 11-time junior college National Assistant Coach of the Year, is in his fifth season as an assistant coach with The University of Alabama track & field staff. Wiley coaches the long sprints (men's and women's 400 meters, 800 meters, 400-meter hurdles and relays) for the Crimson Tide.

The 2018 season saw Wiley's sprinters earn indoor and outdoor All-America honors in the 4x400-meter relay and run three of UA's 10 fastest times in the event during both the indoor and outdoor seasons. Senior Kaitlin Walker also set an indoor school record in the women's 600 meters and posted two other times that rank among the five-fastest ever run at Alabama.

In 2017 sprinter Jereem Richards turned in one of the greatest seasons in Alabama sprints history. The junior set school records in the indoor and outdoor 200 meters, running five of the 10 fastest indoor times and seven of the 10 fastest outdoor times in the event in school history, anchored UA's school record-setting indoor 4x400-meter relay, took home the 200 meter title at the SEC indoor championships and earned indoor and outdoor All-America honors 200 and the 4x400 relay. Richards capped his season under Wiley by winning a gold medals a member of Trinidad & Tobago's 4x400-meter relay and a bronze in the 200 meters at the IAAF World Championships in London. Richards was one of 13 current and former Wiley-coached athletes to compete in London.

Wiley pupils Steven Gayle (indoor and outdoor), Alex Gholston (indoor), Takyera Roberson (outdoor) and Domonique Williams (outdoor) also earned All-America honors in the 400 meters and the men's and women's 4x400-meter relays earned All-America honors indoors and outdoors and established new outdoor school records. Williams went on to win the 400 meters at the Trinidad & Tobago national championships that summer and she and Gayle joined Richards at the 2017 IAAF World Championships in London, representing Trinidad & Tobago and Jamaica, respectively.

Wiley came to Alabama following 10 seasons at South Plains College, one of the nation's best junior college track & field programs. He has a proven record of success on the track and in the classroom, having coached on a staff that led South Plains to 28 NJCAA national team championships while sending more than 70 athletes on to full scholarships at elite NCAA Division I programs.

Wiley also has significant international and Olympic experience, having mentored eight Olympians and 12 IAAF World Championships participants, including three athletes who have won a total of six medals at Worlds.

Wiley was part of an impressive era of success at South Plains during his nine-season tenure (2006-2015). Following his arrival on the staff in 2006, the Texans won 28 NJCAA team national championships, set seven NJCAA national records, produced 107 NJCAA individual and relay national champions and produced seven NJCAA men's and women's National Athletes of the Year (indoor and outdoor). South Plains sent six athletes to compete for their native countries at the 2012 London Olympics, produced one Olympic finalist (Renny Quow, Trinidad & Tobago in the men's 400 meters at the 2008 Beijing Olympics) and eight IAAF World Championships qualifiers - Quow (2009-11-13, 400, 4x400), LaToy Williams (Bahamas, 2009-11-13, 400, 4x400), Rondell Bartholomew (Grenada, 2011, 400), Jura Levy (Jamaica 2011, 100, 4x100), Janelle Redhead (Grenada, 2011, 200), Shavez Hart (Bahamas, 2013, 100, 4x100), Trevorvano Mackey (Bahamas, 2013, 100, 200, 4x100) and Lestrod Roland (Saint Kitts and Nevis, 2013, 200, 4x100).

During Wiley's time in Levelland, South Plains produced two IAAF World Championships medalists - Quow (Bronze, 400, 2009) and Levy (Silver, 4x100-meter relay, 2011) and two Texans athletes ranked in the top four in the world in the 400 meters in 2009 - Quow (No. 2) and Williams (No. 4). South Plains' 2010 men's outdoor 4x400 relay ranked No. 7 among all colleges and universities in the US, the 2011 men's indoor 4x400 relay ranked No. 3 in the world, the 2012 men's indoor 4x400 (fourth) and South Plains' outdoor 4x400 (12th) ranked among the best in the world. The Texans' 2013 men's 4x100 ranked No. 9 among all colleges/universities in the U.S., the 2014 men's indoor 4x400 ranked No. 15 in the world and the 2014 men's sprint medley relay ranked No. 1 among all U.S. colleges/universities.

As an assistant coach at Texas State from 2002-06, Wiley coached 16 Southland Conference individual and relay champions for the Bobcats, including 112 All-Southland Conference athletes, 28 NCAA Midwest Regional qualifiers, two NCAA national qualifiers, one USATF national semifinalist and two USATF Junior Nationals qualifiers. Wiley coached Texas State athletes to 63 school all-time top 10 performances, eight Texas State school records and two Southland Conference records. Texas State produced seven Southland Conference championship teams over a span of four seasons, including a sweep of the 2004 men's and women's indoor and outdoor titles. Wiley helped lead the Bobcats to a Southland Conference outdoor record points total for the women's team in 2004 (195), coached the Southland Conference Athlete of the Year and Outstanding Track Performer in 2003 and 2004 (indoor and outdoor) and the Southland Conference High Point Athlete in 2003, 2004 and 2006.

Before joining the staff at Texas State, Wiley was a sprinter on the Bobcats' track team from 1997-2000, accomplishing career bests of 10.29 (wind-aided) in the outdoor 100 meters and 6.20 in the indoor 55-meter dash (a time that ranked in the world's top 20 in 2000). As a student-athlete, Wiley was a member of the 1998 and 2000 outdoor conference championship teams. A two-time team captain for the Bobcats, Wiley was also a member of the school-record sprint medley relay team.

Wiley, a native of Round Rock, Texas, graduated from Texas State in May 2000 with a degree in Business Administration and completed a Master's degree in Secondary Education in May 2008. Wiley and his wife, Julie, have two sons, Hayden Blaine Alan, and Landon James. Julie was a track & field letter winner at Texas State from 1996-2000.

DEREK YUSH

Assistant Coach — Throws

THIRD SEASON

Derek Yush begins his third season as the throws coach at Alabama in 2020.

Yush's second year on the Crimson Tide's Track and field coaching staff landed him with a strong group of All-American performances in both the indoor and outdoor seasons. For the indoor season, Portious Warren and Kord Ferguson won honors in Shot Put, and Bobby Colantonio won honors in Weight Throw. In the outdoor season, Yush coached Haley Teel, Nickolette Dunbar, and Portious Warren to achieve honors in Shot Put, along with Samantha Zelden in Javelin. For the men, Yush coached Bobby Colantonio in Hammer, Kord Ferguson in Discus and Shot Put, and Santiago Basso in Shot Put. Overall in the 2019 season, Yush coached eight athletes to 11 All-America honors.

In 2018, Yush's initial Tide throws crew earned indoor All-America honors in the men's and women's shot put and men's hammer throw indoors and the women's shot put and men's discus and hammer throw outdoors. In addition to the All-America honors, Portious Warren established new school records in the women's shot put during both the indoor and outdoor seasons.

Yush arrived at the Capstone from LSU, where he served in the same capacity from 2007-17. During his time in Baton Rouge, Yush coached Tiger throwers to 23 first team All-America honors and four individual national championships. His pupils also won 14 SEC championships and earned All-SEC honors 30 times while setting seven school records and two SEC Championships records.

In his final season in Baton Rouge in 2017, Yush coached Rebekah Wales to a third All-America finish in the women's javelin at the NCAA Championships, making her the first three-time All-American in the event in LSU history. Yush also coached Johnnie Jackson to the NCAA weight throw championship during the indoor season and All-America honors outdoors in the hammer throw in 2017.

The 2015 season closed the book on two of Yush's record-setting athletes - All-Americans Tori Bliss and Rodney Brown.

Bliss ended her LSU career as an SEC champion and All-American, claiming the SEC indoor shot put championship and scoring in the event at the NCAA indoor and outdoor championships. Her final indoor season was highlighted by an SEC indoor meet record of 60-1 (18.31m) to win her first career conference shot put crown and an indoor personal best of 60-7 1/4 (18.47m) to finish as the NCAA indoor runner-up in the event. Her indoor PR ranked No. 8 all-time in NCAA history after the NCAA indoor meet.

After finishing as the runner-up the NCAA outdoor championships in 2014, Bliss earned All-America honors for the third time with a fourth-place finish in her final NCAA championships in 2015. That season Bliss also raised her outdoor school record to 60-8 (18.49m), which was the ninth-best mark in NCAA outdoor history at the time.

Brown continued to set records himself in his final season at LSU in 2015 when he raised his own school record and broke his Penn Relays meet record in the discus with a career-best throw of 213-5 (65.04m) at the 121st running of the Carnival to defend his title in the event. He was then crowned the SEC's discus champion for the second time after first winning the title as a sophomore in 2013 en route to a return to the NCAA championships.

Brown made his mark on the international stage in the summer of 2015 when he made his IAAF World Championships debut in Beijing.

Yush led the LSU throws group to its most successful season at the SEC Championship in 2012 as his athletes scored a total of 82 points in conference action.

Following the 2012 season, he was honored with the privilege of serving as the men's throws coach for Team USA at the North American, Central American & Caribbean Under-23 Championships held in Guanajuato, Mexico.

Yush came to LSU in 2007 after spending eight seasons at the University of Rhode Island, where he coached the men's throws, jumps and multi-events while also acting as an assistant with the cross country team. Rhode Island enjoyed tremendous success under Yush's guidance as he helped lead the squad to 11 Atlantic-10 Conference titles from 2001-07, including five indoor and six outdoor crowns during his tenure.

In addition to his experience at Rhode Island, Yush served as the head men's and women's coach at Eastern Connecticut State University from 1998-99 after serving as the school's assistant sprints, jumps and throws coach in 1997-98.

Yush earned his USA Track and Field Level II Coaching Certificate and is fully certified to coach sprints, hurdles, relays, jumps, throws and multi-events. He has served as the throwing events instructor for the United States Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association Academy since 2013. Yush is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist with the US Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association, after having been certified as a strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association in 1997. He earned a bachelor's degree in dietetics from the University of Connecticut in May 1997.

The Enfield, Conn., native also served two seasons as an administrative assistant at Connecticut, where he served as a team captain and helped lead the Huskies to Big East and New England titles as a senior.

Yush and his wife, Heather, reside in Tuscaloosa.

ALABAMA'S GOLD MEDALISTS

On August 6, 2012, former University of Alabama track standout Kirani James won the 400 meters in dominant fashion with a personal-best time of 43.94 at the 2012 Summer Olympic Games at the London Olympic Stadium.

James, aged 19 at the time and representing his home nation of Grenada, became the small Caribbean island's first Olympic medalist as well as the first non-American to break the 44-second barrier in the history of the event.

James' gold medal was the fifth gold earned by a former UA track athlete. He joined Calvin Smith and LIllie Leatherwood (USA) and double gold winner Pauline Davis (Bahamas) in the annals of UA track history.

Jan Johnson earned the first Olympic medal in UA history, a bronze medal in the pole vault in the 1972 Summer Olympic Games in Munich, clearing 17-6 1/2 inches (5.35 meters) to finish third.

Smith won a gold medal as part of the 4x100-meter relay team in 1984 and an individual bronze medal in the 100 meters in 1988. Smith's gold medal came as part of a relay unit that set a world record of 37.83 in the 4x100 relay as he ran the third leg of the relay.

Davis originally finished in second place in the 200 behind Marion Jones of the United States but was awarded the gold medal in 2009 after Jones was stripped of the title.
